

Action Transport Theatre and Unity Theatre present, in association with DaDaFest:

A brand new retelling for children aged 5+, from the creative team behind the celebrated Little Red and the Big Bad Wolf and The Jungle Book.

Schools shows at Whitby Hall: Wednesday 9th January – Friday 11th January 2019

Join us for one of the most wonderful stories ever told! Action Transport Theatre again joins forces with Unity Theatre for this highly theatrical and bold retelling of this classic family tale — Beauty and the Beast!

Produced in partnership with innovative disability arts organisation DaDaFest, Beauty and the Beast will be another uniquely inclusive festive show, demonstrating that beauty really is in the eye of the beholder and that everyone's attitude can, at times, be beastly!

★★★★ "A gift to children of all ages."

The Stage for The Jungle Book

Performances at Whitby Hall:

Wednesday 9th January — 10am
Wednesday 9th January — 1pm
Thursday 11th January — 1pm
Friday 11th January — 10am
Friday 11th January — 1pm

The performance week will include an audio described performance and 'touch tour'. Get in touch for more information about these.

Tickets:

We want to make world-class theatre accessible to as many children as possible.

Tickets cost just £6 per child.

(One free teacher ticket per 10 children.)

For more information or to book, email Jess Egan-Simon: jess@actiontransporttheatre.org or call 0151 357 2120

★★★★★ "A truly magnificent and heroic performance... a howling success."

Liverpool Sound & Vision for Little Red and the Big Bad Wolf

★★★★★ "A witty and intelligent production that engages adult and child alike."

The Reviews Hub for Little Red and the Big Bad Wolf

★★★★★ "Perfectly formed... recaptures the art of sharing folktales by the fireside"

The Stage for Little Red and the Big Bad Wolf