

YOUNG ACTORS 2017

Love creating and performing?

We're looking for young actors to devise and stage a new and unique piece of theatre.

Over an exciting six month process you'll work with innovative professional theatre makers Thought Plane Theatre to craft and rehearse a brand new play, which you will perform in August.

Thought Plane are based in Manchester and specialise in works that embrace interactivity and unusual stagecraft. They've been chosen as lead artists on this project by Action Transport Theatre, a celebrated and award-winning theatre company based in Ellesmere Port.

Whether you have previous acting experience or just the passion to give it a try, contact jess@actiontransporttheatre.org to get all the info you need.
